Professional, Scientific and Technical Services

This is the first of what will be a series of articles to help explain some of the new NAICS sectors and how they were compiled from the discontinued SIC industry codes. These articles will be more in depth and, it is hoped, help the readers better understand the data and their differences from the SIC codes.

Supersector 60 is Professional and Business Services. This supersector is comprised of three sectors. Sector 54 is Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services; Sector 55 is Management of Companies and Enterprises; and Sector 56 is Administrative and Support and Waste Management and Remediation Services.

The Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services sector, the second largest of the three sectors, comprises establishments that specialize in performing professional, scientific, and technical activities for others. These activities require a high degree of expertise and training. The establishments in this sector specialize according to expertise and provide these services to clients in a variety of industries and, in some cases, to households. Activities performed include the following: legal advice and representation; accounting, bookkeeping, and payroll services; architectural, engineering, and specialized design services; computer services; consulting services; research services: marketing consulting and marketing research services and public opinion polling; advertising services; photographic services; translation and interpretation services; veterinary services; and other professional, scientific, and technical services.

Industries in subsector 541 are establishments engaged in processes where human capital is the major input. These establishments make available the knowledge and skills of their employees, often on an assignment basis, where an individual or team is responsible for the delivery of services to the client. The individual industries of this subsector are defined on the basis of the particular expertise and training of the services provider.

This sector excludes establishments primarily engaged in providing a range of day-to-day office administrative services, such as financial planning, billing and record-keeping, personnel, and physical distribution and logistics. Such establishments are classified in Sector 56, Administrative and Support and Waste Management and Remediation Services.

Much of the composition of sector 54 was included in the services industries of the SIC codes. The old services industry has been broken down into many smaller NAICS sectors. Supersector 60, of which sector 54 is a part, is the largest nongovernmental industry, in terms of employment, in Tennessee.

In Tennessee, the total employment for sector 54 in 2002 was 96,100 persons. This was a decline of 900 persons (0.9 percent decline) from the 2001 total employment.

Total nonfarm employment increased by 5,200 jobs from February 2002 to February 2003. During this period there was growth in educational/health services (up 13,700 jobs), professional/business services (up 12,200 jobs), leisure/hospitality (up 3,200 jobs), state government educational services (up 2,400 jobs), local government (up 2,000 jobs), transportation equipment manufacturing (up 1,900 jobs), and wholesale trade (up 1,700 jobs).

Over the year, the largest job losses occurred in retail trade (down 6,500 jobs); construction (down 4,700 jobs); transportation/warehousing/utilities (down 4,100 jobs); machinery manufacturing, apparel manufacturing, and electrical equipment/appliance manufacturing (all three down 2,600 jobs); and information (down 2,000 jobs).

During the past month, total employment increased by 9,000 jobs. There were seasonal increases in state government educational services (up 5,900 jobs); educational/health services and leisure/hospitality (both up 2,400 jobs), and local government (up 1,900 jobs). There were declines in retail trade (down 3,100 jobs), which included a drop of 1,200 jobs in clothing/clothing accessories stores; and electrical equipment/appliance manufacturing (down 1,000 jobs).

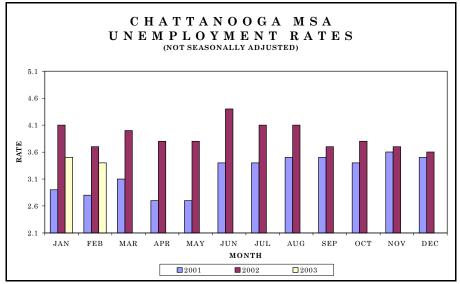

The data from all the nonfarm employment estimates tables include all full- and part-time nonagricultural wage and salary employees who worked during, or received pay for, any part of the pay period which includes the 12th of the month. This is a count of jobs by place of work. Agricultural workers, proprietors, self-employed persons, workers in private households, and unpaid family workers are excluded. These numbers may not add due to rounding. Data are based on the 2002 benchmark.

Total nonfarm employment decreased by 500 jobs from January to February. There were seasonal decreases in leisure/hospitality (down 500 jobs), which included a decline of 700 jobs in accommodation/food services; local government (down 500 jobs); and retail trade and transportation/warehousing/utilities (both down 200 jobs). This was partially offset by increases in professional/business services and durable goods manufacturing (both up 300 jobs) while state government, wholesale trade, and educational/health services all increased by 200 jobs.

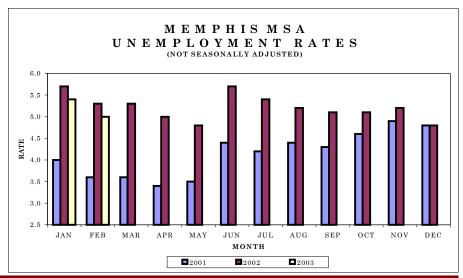

During the past 12 months, total employment increased by 2,200 jobs, with goods-producing industries decreasing by 300 jobs and service-providing industries increasing by 2,500 jobs.
